Entry into this world for any human being is the start of an era untold and unfelt before. No individual ever understands the expectations of this magnificent and unpredictable world. The pathway to accomplishments is not laid on a smooth pitch! In India, everything has to be fought for and obtained rather than bestowed with especially if it has to be done from the scratch and grass root level.

We have a profile of a persona par excellence for his sheer commitment and dedication for creating a monument like enclave out of unending rocky terrain featured with gigantic odds of destructive blockages around! It is a pragmatic effort on the part of a single and standalone person who envisioned for bringing the brilliance of this world amongst the limited options in a totally ignored and strangely unconcerned place. This is a brief expedition of how this individual has evolved to transform and transit the place of Raichur into a spectacularly inspiring hub.

Education is the most powerful weapon which you can use to change the world.
